The saga of spotlight for brands, designers and creative distributors to come on a stage with style, stunning looks and unspoken stories. This iconic runway is a symbol of Fashion meets Fabulous faces of Bollywood and Urban Cinema taking these brands global .

We are not here to compete

We are here to claim our position

India is not inspired by fashion — India inspires fashion.

This is the rise of a global Indian IP.

History starts now.

GUJARAT, A PANTHEON OF GLOBAL FASHION.

JAM'ora strives to give Gujarat, a stitching story of spotlight, fashion and future. This fashion runway will bring its heritage, fabric, heirlooms and history of weaving legacies on Global Atlas with the greatest scale and style.

CONCEPT: RUNWAY TO GLOBAL SWAY

History remembers the runways of Europe. But it forgets the roots beneath them.

Long before Paris defined couture and Milan dictated luxury, India was weaving stories into fabric.

Not just garments legacies. When merchants docked at Gujarat's ports centuries ago, they weren't bringing fashion to India.

They were taking it back with them.

They carried Kashmiri motifs that became paisley. They carried Bandhani that evolved into bandanas. They carried muslin so fine it was called "woven air."

What the world applauded as innovation was often inspiration. Europe didn't create global fashion dominance overnight.

It curated, commercialized, and capitalized on what India had already perfected. The truth is powerful Global fashion didn't start on Western runways.

It started in Indian courtyards, royal ateliers, temple towns, and artisan homes.

We were never behind.

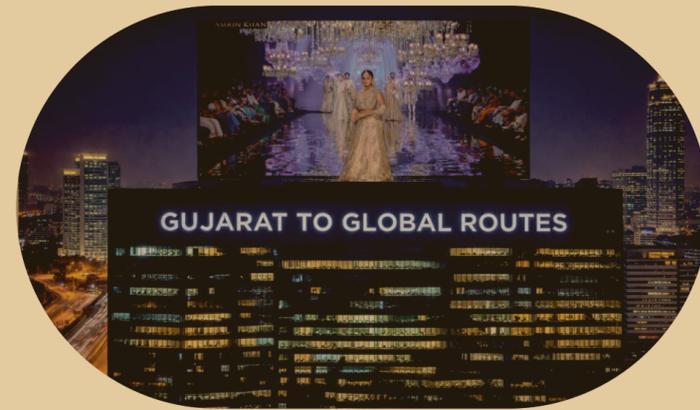

We were the blueprint.

And now, the blueprint becomes the headline.
